

SYWAWA
Chock-o-lat

Chocolatier Dominique Persoone has collaborated with Sywawa to create Chock-o-lat, a new parasol combining the worlds of design and chocolate. The pioneering parasol presents a surprising result, demonstrating the creativity of the Belgium brand. The central pole-umbrella covers a shadow area of 4.71m<sup>2</sup>, and offers a tilt function for increased versatility. Meanwhile, the brushed stainless steel is complemented by symacryl dralon fabric for a durable finish.

www.symoparasols.com

CHELSOM
Box

Fusing clean and stylish geometric design, the Box table lamp takes inspiration from the simplicity of Japanese design. The design features a linear steel frame encasing a cylindrical shade, available in a wide variety of fabrics complete with acrylic diffusers. Presented as part of a wider collection including wall, ceiling and floor lighting, the range is also offered in a textured black finish.

www.chelsom.co.uk

INNOLUX
Kuplat 480

Designed by Yki Nummi, Kuplat presents a dynamic composition in both its original form and new, larger version. The pendant lamp consists of two acrylic shades, one nesting inside the other. The white acrylic inner shade functions as a reflecting surface, brightening the light passing through, while the outer shade is available in smoke grey, transparent, sand, red and orange.

www.innolux.fi

CHANNELS
Limited Edition

British furniture designer Samuel Chan is celebrating the 20th anniversary of his design studio Channels, with a limited edition collection of his most iconic designs. Reinterpreted with new details, finishes and materials, the collection of just twenty pieces per design are numbered, carrying a commemorative mark for exclusivity. The collection will launch in September at London Design Festival.

www.channelsdesign.com